Your opportunity!

Candidates from 13 member universities take part in the VII International Video and II Research Pitches Contests'

The 36 applications accepted for the VII International Video and II Research Pitches Contests' make this edition the most successful since the launch of this permanent activities.

In this edition, the limit of three applications per university has been eliminated and the applications had to be submitted by the students and researchers themselves, with the support of their university.

For the VII International Video Contest, the Jury will select the winners among the 16 videos submitted for the call 2018. This breaks the record of videos established in the IV International Video Contest in which 14 videos were submitted.

II Research Pitches Contests

As for the II Research Pitches Contests, the Jury will decide who among the 19 pitches submitted for the present call will receive one of the three prizes awarded. In the previous editions, the first one of the contest, 11 researchers participated in this permanent activity of the CGU. Learn more.
